WILL OPEN UN SEPTEMBER. Some time in the early days of Sep-tember, Hon. J. Taylor Ellyson, the Director-General of the Virginia Democracy, whose splendid leadership ever inspires confidence among the rank and file of the confidence among the rank and file of the party, will take this place-at the head of the column, and Colonel Joseph Button, the grand recorder of the "tribe" will at his bidding say, "Ready! Alm! Fire-"
And the exempaign of 1900, which promises to be as memorale as that of 1895, will have been formally opened.

have been formally opened. Almost simultaneously, these twelve "spell-binders," to whom I have referred, will mount the stump in different sections of the State, and from that hour until Saturday night before the first Tuesday in November, the welkin will be made to ring with eloquence, as they go up and down the old Commonwealth, driving terror into the ranks of the enemy.

There are some remarkable coincidences in connection with the personnel of these

ALL BUT ONE ARE LAWYERS.

For instance, they are all lawyers with one single exception.

All save two have seen service in the General Assembly of Virginia, seven of them being members of the present Legislature, and three having served in former Four of the eleven, who are lawyers, are at present serving as attorneys for the Commonwealth in their respective coun-

It is looked upon as a further coinci-fience that the two electors-at-large are not only both members of the Virginia Senate, but are the two leading candifates for the Democratic nomination for Attorney-General next year. They are John William Hodges Mann, of Nottaway, and Senator John L Jeffries, of Culpeper.

Judge Mann and Senator Jeffries are classed among the very ablest lawyers in the State, and are widely known for their eloquent and convincing manner of public speaking.

They will worthly wear the honors conferred upon them by their party, and which in the struggles of the past, have rested upon the shoulders of so many of Virginia's distinguished sons.

Besides the two electors-at-large, there are ten others in the State, whose special duty it is to canvass the several counties and cities embraced in their respective congressional districts.

These twelve Democrats, if chosen at the polls, will constitute the electoral college of Virginia, and will meet some time in December next and cast the en-tire vote of the State for the Democratic ominees for President and Vice-Presi-

THE "OLD PREST" IN LINE The "Old First" District, ever prolific of talented and brilliant leaders, comes for-ward with an able and cloquent young lawyer, in the person of Hon. Thomas J. Downing, Commonwealth's Attorney of

Roman features, and graceful carriage, make him a man of fine personal appearonce; and, being exceedingly logical and engaging in his style of speaking, he is one of the most attractive stumpers in

He has spoken in all the counties of the First Congressional District in for-mer contests, and has made a fine impres-sion upon those who heard him. Hon, John Whitehead, of Norfolk city, who will do the honors for the Second District, is the only one of the dozen 'spell-binders' who is not a lawyer.

He is a newspaper man of prominence, and has long been an active worker in the ranks of the party in his section. Mr. Whitehead is a member of the Virginia Legislature, and is a speaker of rare force and ability.

A BRILLIANT ORATOR.

The Democrats of the Third District chose wisely when they placed their bustcanvass in Virginia next fall promises to be replete with brilliant oratory, and the highest order of stump-speaking. This is clearly indicated by the fact that twelve of the ablest and best-equipped public speakers in the ranks of the party, preach the gospel of Democracy from from the rugged mountains of far-off Lee, ends.

He is a prominent young attorney, and a member of the firm of Kelley & Edwards, of this city.

Hon. Robert Turnbull, ex-Senator from Brunswick, is the color-bearer of the Fourth District Democracy, for the coming presidential struggle. He is an able lawyer, has long been prominent in the councils of the party, and prominent in the councils of the party, and is an exceedingly logical and convincing speaker. The battle will be hot, as usual, in the Fourth, and Senator Turnbull will be called upon to do a great deal of "spell-binding" before the campaign is over.

There are few men, however, in South side Virginia who are better prepared for the irksome task than Mr. Turnbull, and he may be relied upon to do his work faithfully and well.

WITHERS A MAN OF BRAINS. The Fifth District Democracy will be led by one of the very brainiest young men in the State, in the person of the Hon. Eugene Withers, of the city of Danville.

It is to Senator Withers more than to any other man, that the credit is due for the triumph of a Constitutional Convention in this State. He took the question up, became its thorough master, and agitated it five years ago. The people were not ready then, but in that agitation the brilliant young Se tor was all the while laying the founda tion deep and broad for the splendid vic-tory on the 24th of last month. Senator Withers is a logical and force-ful speaker, and, being a great student, is thoroughly posted on all the issues of the He is in every way admirably equipped

Senator Graham Claytor, of Bedford, is the Democratic elector for the Sixth Dis He is Commonwealth's Attorney for his county, and a man of deserved popularity and prominence in his section. Mr. Claytor is as gentle in his manner as a woman, and was a great favorite in Legislative circles here last winter. He has a musical voice, his bearing is graceful and he is a most pleasing public speaker.

Being a man of exceeding modesty, he naturally does not seek controversy, but if thrust upon him, he may be relied upon to stand up for his rights and for upon to stand up for his rights and for his principles, which he will espouse in the approaching canvass.

for his county. Public speaking is no new business to Captain Parks; his long service in public life being sufficient evidence that he has had much of it to do.

He is one of those vigorous stumpers under the volcanic blasts of whose sonor under the voicance basis of wase some ous voice the very earth seems to tremble. His plain, logical, straightforward man-ner never fails to impress his hearers with his honesty of purpose, or to carry conviction at once to their hearts. Captain Parks will make the mountains and valleys of the Seventh District ring with eloquence, from Howardsville to the Maryland line, and those who have the courage to oppose him will find in his a
